Company Info	"Club Med" is a resort originating from France. ★My job is to enjoy vacation with customers★ The idea is that everyone who stays at the resort is part of the Club Med village. The staff members are called G.O (Gentle Organizers), who serve customers in a friendly manner, and it feels more like "having fun together in the same space" than working. For example, we can guide you through activities and have fun together, have dinner together, or relax together at the bar. After finishing your shift, you can spend time at the resort, so you can feel like you're on vacation. G.O's positions vary from reception to on stage. Including reception (front desk), restaurant, activity instructor, bartender, etc. There are musicians, dancers, and other people who liven up the show, as well as tour desks, kids clubs, room assignments, purchasing, accounting, etc. We will listen to what you are good at and what you would like to try and decide on a position. Communication within the resort is primarily in English, but even if you don't speak English, there is no problem as long as you are willing to learn. We have customers and staff from overseas, so you can study multiple languages while working. Dormitories and meals are provided, and you can move around each season, so the place you work and the people you work with will change each season. If you would like to work overseas in the future, please apply. Let's grow together through various encounters! We'll be expecting you. [No smoking indoors]
