Company Info	We are a company that provides "comprehensive human resources services" such as temporary staffing, paid job introduction, and engineering, with a focus on outsourcing in the Japanese manufacturing industry. Our history dates back to 1971, and for the 45 years since our founding, we have supported Japanese manufacturing and the people who work there, and have also been supported by everyone. Many products, from the cars and smartphones we see every day to the food we eat, are made in Japan, and the manufacturing sites are also diverse. Among them, we are responsible for one process of the product, and we are committed to creating "safer sites" and "higher quality" products together with our customers' aspirations. At the same time, based on the philosophy that "manufacturing is developing people," we are building a labor management system that can support each individual person working on the site, such as creating a comfortable workplace and accumulating skills and careers.
