The 47th Daijob Career Fair will be held in February - the time when the job market is annually becoming more active. Enterprises that are considering securing human resources from April 2023 are also looking forward to exhibiting at the event.

The DCF is attended by many native English-speaking visitors, as well as many Japanese visitors whose English-speaking skills are higher than the business-level. The event hosts many foreign and Japan-affiliated global companies, such as English learning institutions, hotel-related industries, IT industries, etc. as exhibitors.
